MEMORIAL FOUNTAIN

The drive for funds to erect a memorial fountain in Memorial Park in honor of Richmond men who lost their lives in the World War, is under way.

According to Mrs. Josephine Washburn, who is at the head of the committee in charge of the drive, which is to raise $5,000 for the Memorial, reports that several donations have already been received.

Instant co-operation on every hand is reported by those who are taking an active part in the drive for the funds. And that is as it should be.

Richmond has a marvelous monument to the heroes of the late war in the Memorial building and park and a fountain such as is proposed will do much to set off the park in the proper manner.

The names of those men from this city, who made the supreme sacrifice during the great struggle are to be engraved on the base of the fountain so that posterity for all time to come will be able to know who they are.

In announcing the drive for the funds to erect the fountain, the War Mothers announced that as soon as the fund nears completion, the date for the groundbreaking will be announced. That date should not be far distant if everyone will do his share at once.

Richmond Community Builders

MR. C. D. MONETT, LOCAL REPRESENTATIVE FOR THE CHEVROLET PRODUCTS HAS MADE THEM HOUSEHOLD WORDS IN CONTRA COSTA COUNTY—

Editors Note: This is another one of our series of sketches of public spirited men and community builders of Richmond. Our purpose is twofold—that individuals who have given their time and ability for the purpose of the community may be given recognition, and that such recognition may encourage others to think and act the part of community builders.

Motorism has never known a keener mind for giving to the public transportation on an economical basis than that displayed by C. D. Monett, local representative for the Chevrolet.

Monett was born in New York City. His parents moved to Columbus, Ohio, while he was still a small boy. Monett attended public school at Columbus and later entered the Columbus University. After receiving his diploma at college Monett worked in a bank at Columbus. He left Columbus in 1913 and came to California after disposing of his Cadillac agency.

Arriving in California he entered the automobile business in Oakland for a time and later took up ranching near Santa Rosa. Later he went to Petaluma and opened a hotel, which he conducted successfully for 4 years. He later returned to San Francisco, where he took over the Paige automobile until the war when he entered the Naval Aviation school at Gulfport, Mississippi.

Two years ago he came to Richmond with the Chevrolet and his business has steadily grown. Only recently he has expanded by opening up an elaborate salesroom in Oakland.

Monett comes from a well-known family of French aristocracy. His father was general passenger agent for the New York Central railway. While on a hunting trip with Cornelius Vanderbilt, he was taken ill and died.

Since that time Monett has had to shift for himself and his efforts has brought him considerable property in Oakland and Richmond.

When not engaged selling Chevrolets Monett spends his time at his country home at Carmel by the Sea.

He is always interested in anything that will help Richmond.

"Victim" of Holdup Says It Was All "Publicity"

Admits to Police That Entire Story of Holdup was Hoax; Tries a Few Others

Police investigating the alleged hold-up of J. Clotis Chandler, who claimed to have been attacked and robbed by thugs at Twenty-second street and Macdonald avenue when he was on his way home from a show several weeks ago, found that it was merely another of the many hoaxes practiced by him to satisfy his cravings for publicity.

Yesterday, Chandler when confronted by the evidence gathered against him in the investigations, which followed his sensational outburst several weeks ago, admitted the hoax and several others uncovered by the authorities.

Chandler admitted that he has practiced the stunt in other places and the success of these former publicity stunts is believed to have encouraged him to repeat the hoaxes.

Officers while grilling him in an attempt to learn his history before coming to Richmond became suspicious of statements made by him. The absence of all signs of bruises, which would naturally appear when anyone had received such a blow as Chandler claimed to have been dealt him, tended to make the authorities suspicious. Doctors at the Emergency, the Cottage and the County hospitals, where Chandler was taken apparently suffering severely from the blows, could find nothing the matter with him and a few days later, he was discharged.

In the meantime police began their investigations. At the Keweenaw dairy, where Chandler claimed to have worked for some time, it was learned that he had worked there but two weeks and had but $16 coming to him when he left. Chandler claimed to have been robbed of $55. This strengthened the suspicions of the officer and further investigation revealed the other hoaxes.

Whenever Chandler felt the need for publicity, he called on newspaper offices with sensational news or staged his "attacks" in places where the news would be learned quickly.

Among the other stunts staged by him were bandaged eyes resulting from heroic efforts to save some mis-treated girl from attacks and an inheritance gag, in which he was the beneficiary.

Several days ago he came into the office of the RECORD-HERALD with the story that his "millionaire uncle in Vancouver" had died and he was the heir to an estate valued at $300,000. He was unable to produce the letter which he claimed his attorneys in Seattle had sent him.

The authorities secured evidence and yesterday confronted Chandler and he denied everything. He finally broke down and admitted everything, signing a confession.

He has been ordered by the authorities to go to work immediately or he will be placed in jail on a vagrancy charge.

GERMANY FEARS NEW SECRET PACT IN THE LEAGUE GROUP

Secret Agreement Similar to One Which Disrupted Past Session Feared

By O. D. Tolischus (By Universal Service)

Special Cable to Universal Service. BERLIN, April 3.—Germany is beginning to fear a new secret agreement, similar to those regarding seats on the council of the League of Nations which wrecked the recent meeting of the league, is being arranged prior to the projected September meeting, regarding the former German Colonies which Germany hopes to get back in the shape of mandates issued by the league.

The fear is based on reports in the newspapers of Germany's former enemies that Premier Mussolini is negotiating with England with regard to the Acquisition by Italy of German East Africa now held by England.

It is recalled that the intrigue regarding the council seats also was first based on press reports. The allotment of Colonial Mandates was one of the presuppositions for German entrance into the League, laid down in the German notes to Geneva. It is expected that the German government will ask the Allies for information concerning this point.

THE END OF THE FIRST YEAR

Yes, and the beginning of the years to come. This is a real turning point in the history of this store. It has been going through a transition, and all transitory periods are hard, but we do feel that we are on the road to things as we hope they will be. We have made our plans; we have set our goal, and we are working to it. This first milestone in the years to come marks the adoption of the new name in its entirety — B. F. Schlesinger & Sons. A business established so many years ago by Kahn's is opening a new era — a new service for Oakland and the East Bay. We hope to make this a metropolitan store worthy of the East Bay.

The sale which opens Monday was won in grateful recompense to the public that has made this store a success for the many years of its existence and has within the period of last year practically doubled the business in ready response to every improvement, every step forward that we have made.

Truly it is encouraging to do things for Oakland and the East Bay when the people are so receptive, so responsive. It makes us all the more eager to start on the beginning of the second year and to do and to continue to do the bigger and better things; secure merchandise from the far off corners of the world, as well as to promote the interest, manufacture and sale of our own California products and manufacture.

We have much to be proud of in California, much to be proud of in Oakland and the East Bay, and hand in hand with the industries, the great background of agriculturalists, mining, shipping and various other industries, we hope to help the growth, the activity, the success of this section and certainly of the people in it. The East Bay's great future is one in which we hope to take an active part, so as a measure of the store, and a measure of the people in it, we are presenting this sale, or week of sales with each day significant because of its special presentations. We are asking you to see this store, see it at its best after the stewardship of one year; see it in action; judge its service and partake of the advantages. They are many because of our gratitude to Oakland and the great East Bay.

We invite our friends from Richmond and all the many cities here and across the bay to come this week, Monday and every day.

SPRING AUTO PRODUCTION TO REACH PEAK

By ROY C. HAYES
Copyright 1926, Universal Service
DETROIT, Mich., April 3.—Easter Sunday in motordom finds the industry better equipped than ever to meet the expected record breaking demand for automobiles this spring. Predictions made several weeks ago by one or two motor leaders that this spring would see a great shortage of cars, seem to be falling shy of the mark.

This does not mean any slackening off in automobile buying. In this connection, it is well to note that the first three months of this year were the greatest from a production point of view, for the corresponding period of any previous year, that the industry has ever known. It is expected that the next three months will show relative gains over the similar period of previous years.

The principal reason why you should be able to take prompt delivery of your new car this spring is the greatly enlarged manufacturing facilities that the bigger companies now enjoy. Nearly all of the leaders have 25 per cent more production ability than they had a year ago. Additions, plant extensions and new equipment installed during the year at an expense of nearly one hundred million dollars are enabling the industry to keep pace with the demand and to assure prompt deliveries.

Some of the companies that had a notable part in this expansion program are Hudson-Essex, which is just completing a $1,000,000 body plant to be devoted exclusively to the production of Hudson and Essex coach bodies; Buick has completed additions which enable the company to build 1,200 cars daily; Dodge is now on a 1,500 car basis as the result of a plant expansion program totalling $8,000,000; Cadillac has a new paint shop and a huge new power plant; Chrysler is now building two immense factory structures; Oakland recently completed a large addition to their layout in Pontiac to care for the production of the new Pontiac Six and Ford has extended facilities at its River Rouge River plant. The name of third plant was changed recently to the (Fordson plant).

Intensive surveys of the sales prospects of all sections of the country are constantly being conducted by the larger companies through dealer organizations, field representatives and special surveys; these companies are always in accurate touch with sales prospects.

Anxiety to get cars on the streets is being tempered with extra caution at this time. Despite the extremely tense competition in the $800-$1,200 class, no thought of further price cutting is being entertained at the moment. In fact the trend in recent weeks has been upward.

Most important of the factory announcements during the week was the nomination of W. Ledyard Mitchell to the position of

"The Girl Whose Friends Never Live Long" Leaves Denizens of Crime For Quiet Life In Arkansas

(By Universal Service)
CHICAGO, April 3.—Loved and feared as the demi-monde queen of Chicago, pretty, demure, little Mary Martha Margaret Collins has fled from the denizens of crime. Fled from the denizens who resented with force any extra attention any single man might pay to her. She has gone to Arkansas—to Hot Springs, where she for a while at least, is living in peace.

It was when the men she favored with her maidenly affections were taken from this earth by six shooters—five of them—that she decided Chicago was no place for her.

Just when she had been introduced to fashionable crooks and had become the leader of the younger set, she favored Johnny Sheehy—called "Sheehy the Immune" by the police—with her love. It possibly was her first love affair, for she was young, not over eighteen.

Johnny was known to have been mixed up in scores of escapades, not recognized as the best police etiquette, but although the best detectives in the Chicago department were put on his trail, he never was brought to trial. He either had an alibi or some politician obtained his release.

On the night of December 8, 1923, Johnny escorted Miss Collins to the Rendezvous cafe. The Rendezvous was not necessarily an underworld resort, but people with money, clothes and looks could and can go there.

Johnny and Margaret lived in the fashionable Wilson avenue district, so as far as their manners was concerned they were welcomed. They did not stuff their napkins in their collars nor did they do any of the other little things that would bar others, less refined.

But when Johnny filled himself with some of the bad moonshine, more prevalent possibly in 1923 than now, he was a bad, bad man. Johnny went to the bar which the cafe afforded and demanded that Leopold Guth, the bartender serve him with a glass of whiskey. Guth suggested that he return to his table where we would be served. Whereupon Johnny drew his gun and shot him, dead.

Henry Bing, a waiter rushed at the slayer with a beer bottle, but he fell in the middle of the floor, mortally wounded by another bullet from Johnny's gun.

A detective, passing the resort heard the shooting and entered the cafe. He killed Johnny Sheehy. And all this happened at a birthday party given in honor of Miss Mary Margaret Collins.

A matter of ten months or so later, Dion O'Banion, then the king of the rum runners, invited Miss Collins to accompany him to the Friar's Inn, also a fashionable resort of Chicago's night life. There is nothing wrong with the cabaret, only when some member of the underworld loses his temper and starts something.

Accompanying O'Banion and Miss Collins was Mike Carozzo, O'Banion's right hand man, and Mrs. Carozzo.

During the course of the evening Mrs. Carozzo and Miss Collins were talking, as women will do, when Mrs. Carozzo made some remark resented by Miss Collins. Margaret just reached across the table and slapped the woman—a loud, ringing rap across the cheek.

Mike's Italian blood arose at seeing his mate mistreated and he arose from the table, jerked Miss Collins from her chair and kicked her around the room.

Dion O'Banion, as gallant a crook as ever walked the streets of Chicago, defended his fair companion and placed Mike back in his chair.

That little episode began the O'Banion-Carozzo feud that resulted in the former's death and possibly all of the other rum killings of gangland.

O'Banion was murdered on November 10, 1924. Miss Collins denied that she had anything to do with the slaying, or that she knew anything about it.

She testified at the inquest: "I'm just here from New York. I came to erect a tombstone over the grave of Johnny Sheehy. I notice that I'm supposed to have driven the car to take the gunman away."

"Well let me tell you this, I'll give a big wad of money to any charity you name if you'll find anyone that saw me at the wheel of a car on that day."

And as the police couldn't provide the means for a charitable request, she was released.

Johnny Phillips was next. He was killed at the Northern Lights cafe. Detectives have been unable to solve this crime. He was just shot, presumably because he was in company of the queen.

Then John "Big" Bates, henchman of Frank McElrath, a king of the underworld today, bestowed his caresses on the girl. He disappeared July 15, 1925. His body was found on the Stickney prairie on November 26, of the same year. But during the time that Bates was missing, Miss Collins kept steady company—steady for a while—with other leaders of crookdom.

Irving Schleg, the aviator bootlegger was killed at the flying field on August 28, 1925. Harry Derman, Schleg's chauffeur, was killed at the same time.

Schleg and Miss Collins were supposed to have been connected with the $200,000 parkway hotel robbery. Both of them are known to have lived there before escaping and both are known to have left for New Orleans directly afterwards, but nothing could be proved.

It was Eugene "Red" McLaughlin, now held in the county jail as the possible slayer of Schleg that gave her the name of "the girl whose friends never live long."

"Red" was with the girl at the midnight frolics, another night life resort, when she attempted to eliminate a piano player with a crock of ice. She was unsuccessful so "Red" volunteered to aid her with the use of a six shooter. But a chair descended on his head before he could shoot.

When he was being questioned here, after his recent arrest, and was told that Miss Collins might be called in, he exclaimed:

"Don't bring her here. If you do, you'll never hang me. I won't live long enough. Her friends never do."

The girl was fined $100 and costs—which she never paid—for her part in the midnight frolics.

Martin Defeats Miller In Local Tennis Tourney

Only one of the three scheduled tennis games of the Richmond Tennis club notch tournament were played yesterday, according to A. S. Rumrell, manager of the plays.

C. P. Martin easily defeated W. G. Miller by 6-2, 6-2. The game was a walkaway from start to finish for Martin.

A. S. Rumrell umpired the sets. Leroy Kenshaw won by default from J. F. Healey.

FIREMEN AND POLICE NOT TO PLAY BALL

Declaring that the rumors that are being circulated about town to the effect that a baseball game between the Fire department and the Police department will be staged in the near future, are without foundation, Police Chief Dan Cox and Inspector L. E. Jones want to announce that the policemen haven't got time to play baseball.

This comes as a sad shock to the fans in Richmond, who are awaiting the game because it offered them a chance to give the "brave and blue" a razzing.

MAE MURRAY IS STAR IN FILM AT RICHMOND

Mae Murray returns to France, a favorite scene for her colorful adventures, in "The Masked Bride," her first picture since the sensational success she scored in "The Merry Widow" and which is playing at the Richmond theatre today only.

It is a colorful adventure story laid in Paris and the Montmartre, with Miss Murray, a French dancer, enmeshed in a strange Apache plot. The picture was directed on a lavish scale at the Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer studios by Christy Cabanne.

Miss Murray stages a series of sensational dances in the gorgeous cafe scenes of the picture, and wears a glittering array of beautiful, and sometimes daring gowns. One remarkable scene shows the dancer disrobing, apparently, under a huge gauze bell—but when this is removed—there is a big surprise in store for the audience!

Francis X. Bushman plays the leading role, and a big cast surrounds the star, including Roy D'Arcy, Basil Rathbone, Pauline Neff, Chester Conklin, Karl Dane and other standard players.

Other features on the same program include "Yes, Yes, Babette," a Bobby Vernon comedy; "Kinograms" world news events.

Memorial Fountain Drive is Started

To erect a memorial fountain in honor of the men of Richmond, who lost their lives during the World War, the Richmond chapter of War Mothers has begun its drive to secure funds for the fountain, which will be installed in Memorial park.

Plans and specifications for the fountain have been prepared by the Piedmont Memorial company, which will probably install the monument. An ornamental fountain with a statue of a "dough-boy" as a local point, will have the names of the men honored engraved on a bronze tablet at the base.

Mrs. Josephine Washburn, chairman of the committee in charge of raising the funds, is being assisted by Mesdames K. A. Cole, Mae Donnelly, Grace Stewart, Rose Rosier, and A. D. Cole. The chairman reports that numerous generous donations have already been made and that the drive is meeting with cooperation on the part of the citizens.

The date for ground breaking will be decided upon as soon as the drive nears completion.

Politics to be Discussed by Richmond Club

The chief speaker at the Richmond club meeting on Monday afternoon, will be Mrs. Dorothy Lenroot Black, daughter of Senator Lenroot.

The subject of Mrs. Black's talk will be "Women in Politics." She has just returned from Washington, where she attended the Senate meetings during the World Court discussion.

The program is sponsored by the civic affairs committee.

EASTER BILL AT THE CALIFORNIA THEATER TODAY

The well remembered screen personality Nick Cogley comes as the feature Vaudeville attraction of the big Easter bill at the California theatre today, with a specially selected company of dramatic artists in Harris Dickson's "The Striped Man," a dramatic scene featuring one of Dickson's beloved characters "Old Reliable". It is the latter part that Nick Cogley impersonates and as the old Darkie he is inimitable.

In his screen work Cogley was always cast in such parts as to make "his" delineations true to life. He spent many months studying the Southern Negro in his native home. Readers of the Saturday Evening Post and Cosmopolitan magazine, will read many of Dickson's stories and the vaudeville stage is certainly lucky to have an artist like Cogley and his supporting cast to interpret one of his greatest stories.

Willis and Willis, a pair of big artists supply much discussion amongst their auditors as to their sex, the finish of their offering, especially being very misleading. However, the artists are really talented and have met with successes in America's greatest show-houses.

The Dubos Trio offering "Novelty Perch Oddities," Tony Deosto "The famous trick Harpist" and Easley and Elkins, a comedy team supplying much humor in black and tan, complete one of the most entertaining programs ever seen in Richmond.

"The American Venue," Paramount's much-talked-of comedy-spectacle, will make its local bow at the California theatre today. Because of its theme, picturesque background, superlative cast and elaborate production trimmings, this picture is awaited with more than ordinary interest.

Fay Laupheimer, who was adjudged the most beautiful girl in America at the annual Atlantic City beauty pageant, plays the title role and in addition a number of the other entrants have minor roles in the film. However, the chief acting burden is carried by Esther Ralston, Lawrence Gray and Ford Sterling, assisted by such experienced troupers as Kenneth MacKenna, Edna May Oliver and William B. Mack. Louise Brooks, the beautiful dancer from the Zeigfeld Follies, and W. T. Benda, the internationally known artist, are also prominent in the picture.

Other features on the big Easter bill include "When 'Ell Froze Over", a Mutt and Jeff cartoon; "Kinograms" world news events; Carl Richard's California orchestra; Larry aCnelo at the mammoth organ.

"The Song and Dance Man" to Be Here Monday

With the reputation of a big New York stage success, with the glamorous back-stage life of Broadway for a background, with a brilliant cast of screen and stage favorites, headed by Tom Moore, Bessie Love and Harrison Ford, and with the directorial stamp of Herbert Brenon, "The Song and Dance Man" Paramount's picturization of George M. Cohan's theatrical comedy, is a photoplay to look forward to with pleasant anticipation. It opens at the California theatre tomorrow.

There have been many stories written, centering around the colorful life behind the asbestos curtain, but none that combined the laughter and heart-tugs, the pathos and humor, the romance and picturesqueness in such appealing fashion as this sentimental tale of a typical song and dance trouper. George M. Cohan wrote the story from intimate personal knowledge, and Paul Schofield, who scenarized it, has preserved all of its essential flavor and feeling.

"The Song and Dance Man" revolves around a youthful vaudevillian, whose tremendous conceit blinds him to the fact that he is nothing but a "ham" actor. He is, withal, a happy-go-lucky chap, generous, self-sacrificing, and ever ready to lend a fellow trouper a helping hand. His sympathetic and later romantic interest in a charming little actress, and his efforts to help her in her climb in the musical comedy heights are vividly and entertainingly pictured.

The entire production has been lavishly set, brightly and fittingly costumed, and under Mr. Brenon's direction very briskly and smoothly produced. The chorus of George White's "Scandals" were used in many of the back-stage scenes.

Only a Buick Could Stand this Test!

Buick has the only chassis built today that can take a "shower bath" while the engine is running and driving the wheels.

Only Buick provides the design which could undergo such punishment. Of all cars built today, Buick alone has the complete protection of the "Sealed Chassis" and "Triple-Sealed Engine."

Every Buick operating part is "sealed" inside a dirt-tight, oil-tight, water-tight iron or steel housing.

A "Triple Seal" (air cleaner, gasoline filter, oil filter) stops injurious outside elements at every engine port of entry.

Road slush and grit cannot reach Buick vital parts. Rain and moisture cannot cause short circuits in the Buick electrical system. Even the spark plugs are covered!

Come in and see, with your own eyes, why Buick motor cars are more dependable. Only a Buick could stand the "shower bath" test!

"My Fault," Says "Girl Ponzi" When Held With $46-a-Week Husband in $400,000 Stock Swindle

This photograph was taken when Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Bange were arranged in a New York police court and held in $20,000 bail each, despite the young woman's declaration that her husband knew nothing of her stock operations. It is alleged that she "sold" from $300,000 to $400,000 in stock and was so convincing in her "sales talk" that her dupes accepted receipts for securities they never saw. Both husband and wife are 26 years old. He was a $40-a-week clerk employed by the Standard Oil company.

Gray Hat Proves Popular Among Men This Season

By EDWARD M. RUTTENBER (By Universal Service)

NEW YORK, April 3.—The wise man takes a missionary of good taste with him when he buys his new spring hat, owing to the variety and splendor of the new creations. Selecting a man's hat is no longer a man's job, but requires instead the keen discrimination of a woman. The judgment of a person experienced with millinery enables the perplexed male to save time and money. Many of the New York men are therefore accompanied by their wives on shopping tours this spring and the merchants along fifth avenue report that a greater number than ever approach their problems with a shepherdess to guide their steps.

Hat stores are supplied with plenty of chairs and a "club" atmosphere to permit couples to take their time picking a gay and becoming hat. The women's hats are so plain that they require little time to make their own selections and therefore have plenty of leisure to give to the men.

In New York the fashionable hatters hesitate to pick one particular style from the jungle of current offerings. One model said to be especially attractive to joint committees on hats is a very light gray welt edge snap brim with black band. Another favorite is a cream-colored affair with a full crown and wide rolled brim with binding. Derbies are increasing in favor as Easter approaches. Hat manufacturers say that the peak of the fancy hat demand is reached along the Pacific coast, where fancy bands and old shades in felt hats are being shipped in large quantities as replacement stock.

There is much posturing in front of mirrors in New York and it now takes twice as long to sell a man as formerly. Incidentally, it might be mentioned that prices are almost twice as high, also.

Mrs. E. A. Charlesworth and daughter, Lois, have returned to their home at 2700 Esmond avenue, following a visit to Yuba City.

Mrs. A. B. Brooks, Jr., has returned to her home at 622 Thirty-eight street, from the Cottage hospital, where she underwent an operation.

Mrs. F. S. Newsome returned to her home yesterday afternoon from Diamond Springs, where she and her son David, spent the Easter vacation.

This Reception Room is but one of the many beautiful parlors of the Fong Wan Herb Company. Adjoining it are the spacious Tea Rooms, where hundreds of persons can be served with Herb Tea. These handsomely furnished rooms evidence both the Artistic Taste and Professional Success of the Fong Wan Herbalists.

Fong Wan, Leader of the Herbalists

It is an actual fact prior to the time that the FONG WAN HERB CO began to publish testimonials and articles in the dailies regarding the heart, its enlargement, leakage, palpitation and its connection with high blood pressure, not a single Chinese Herbalist in the Bay Cities had ever mentioned those heart troubles in his ads. However, since the articles written by Fong Wan which treat of the heart and its ailments have been published, many other Herbalists have imitated him and have claimed to relieve the ailments on the same subject. They are good at "Follow the Leader" in this respect.

Successful Herb Treatment for Heart Trouble

Although Fong Wan Herb Co. was established in Oakland over a decade ago, it was not until 1919 that Fong Wan discovered that the people of Americans that suffer from Heart Trouble

He immediately began to make special study of High Blood Pressure, which always accompanies Heart Trouble, as well as of Leakage of the Heart, Palpitation, Dizziness, Shortness of Breath, etc., in the treatment of which he has had marked success. However, while Fong Wan knew that a large proportion of those who are sick are sufferers from Heart Ailments, it was not until he read an item quoted from the Washington Telegraph, of Dec. 27, 1925, which stated that the investigations of the Department of Commerce had revealed that in 1924 twice as many persons in the United States had died from Heart Ailments as from all other diseases, that he realized how widespread was the trouble.

Diseases of the Heart are very dangerous, often causing sudden death. Immediate attention is therefore imperative.

Gets Life-Saving Advice in Train; Wants the World to Know

For seven months I suffered from a swollen gland in my neck and a shooting pain in my heart. I was treated by many doctors in San Luis Obispo, going from one to another, but the neck kept swelling. I was in a terribly nervous condition, as the doctors were unanimous in saying that my trouble was goiter and that an immediate operation was the only thing that could help me. Neither my husband nor myself liked the idea of my being cut with a knife, so we made up our minds to take a trip to San Francisco to see what the physicians there could do for me. While in the train we met Mr. G. R. Tibbets of Alameda, who recommended FONG WAN to us.

However, we didn't act immediately upon Mr. Tibbets' advice, but carried out our original plan and went to an eminent physician in San Francisco. His advice was the same as that of the doctor in San Luis Obispo had been. He said that an immediate operation was imperative and estimated that it would cost about $600 for the operation and the doctor's fee in addition to hospital expense for two months.

Although we did not mind the cost so much, we feared that I might never come off the operating table alive. Then we decided to go to Oakland and consult FONG WAN. He said all that was the matter with me was inflammation of the heart and of the swollen gland and that it could be easily and speedily overcome. Although it seemed too good to believe, I took some of his herbs to Alameda with me and boiled and drank them according to directions.

IN TWO WEEKS MY RECOVERY WAS COMPLETE. IT SEEMS LIKE A MIRACLE. WE ARE SO HAPPY THAT WE WANT THE WORLD TO KNOW ABOUT IT.

San Francisco Man Relieved in Oakland

My stomach and bronchial tubes troubled me considerably for the past two years. When I tried to do anything, I became choked up and nervous, and for some time I had not been able to work steadily.

Although I had obtained no results from other treatments, I acted upon the recommendation that I try the FONG WAN HERB CO. I have taken the Herb Treatments for only two weeks, and I already feel like a different man. In my case, the Fong Wan Herbs have proven to be the best remedy.

2323 15th St., S. F. ANDREW FOPPIANI.

Another San Francisco Man Relieved in Oakland

While I was working in a nursery at Niles, I suffered from aches on my right side and running around to my back. I was in such torture that I could not sleep nights. I went to a drug store and asked the druggist for some remedy to apply to it. The result was that I did not only fail to get better but that my entire side became a mass of large blisters. Then I decided that it was time to go back to my former Chinese Herbalist, Fong Wan, who had relieved me of terrible headaches about a year ago. His Herb Tea helped me right away, the blisters disappeared, and within two weeks I was completely relieved. Now I am fine again and am glad to recommend the FONG WAN HERBS.

651 Pacific St., San Francisco, Cal. M. M. DUNCAN

Failed to Get Relief in San Francisco

For a little over a year I suffered from the formation of gas and pain in my stomach. I also had pain in the vicinity of my appendix. My eyes, which had been operated upon, were continually red and inflamed. Taken all together, these ailments completely undermined my health, and for a long time I was in a very weak condition.

After having tried in vain to cure my health, I made up my mind to give the FONG WAN HERB TREATMENT a trial. Right here I want to say that before going to Fong Wan I had already taken Chinese Herbs received by the Fong Wan Herb Co. from patrons of the feminine sex are those of Mrs. L. Duarte, 96th Ave., East Oakland; Mrs. E. Dickey, 1425 Grove St., Oakland; Mrs. E. C. Guerra, 78 Front St., Pittsburg, Calif.; and Mrs. E. W. Chamblin, 2224 McGee Ave., Berkeley.

The public is cordially invited to visit the beautiful home of the Fong Wan Herb Co., and inspect the stock of pure, fresh herbs.

SHIP-BUILDING

During the war colonies had grown remarkably. They had herded together, made towns and villages, built roads and established trade.

New England led the rest of the colonies in variety of industries. Though the parliamentary statutes forbade the making of certain goods for export, the colonists were permitted to make anything they might need for use or sale within a single colony or in their own homes, and the thrifty New England farmers and villagers made most of their linens and woolen goods.

Still their trade kept six hundred vessels busy plying to and from English and foreign ports. Almost every seaport hamlet was a port and maintained its little fleet. Every year saw a thousand vessels of all sizes go to the fisheries or up and down the coasts carrying the trade between colony and colony.

New England seamen gained a reputation for being as daring, shrewd and hardy as those bred in past generations in the Devonshire ports of old England. The misty, perilous banks of Newfoundland held no terrors for them and their boats flocked there by the hundreds for cod. From Hudson's Bay and Davis' Straits, in the north, and as far south as Brazil, they beat up and down the long seas in search of whale.

In a single year during peace time, Massachusetts had been known to complete one hundred and fifty ships. Ship-building became New England's chief industry. And the master builders of the Thames asked Parliament for protection against the competition of the colonies.

The forests everywhere in America yielded splendid timber and his Majesty's ministers sent into the northern forest for pine and had the most splendid specimens there marked with the royal arms, as a notice that they were reserved to be used as masts for his Majesty's warships.

HEEDED MOTHER'S ADVICE Oakland, Cal. Feb. 26, 1926. For more than a year I suffered from hemorrhage from a tumor. During this time I was treated by several physicians, all of whom agreed that an operation was the only thing that could help me. Neither my husband nor I liked the idea of the knife.

Upon the advice of my mother who after having an operation on the right side, the wound forming a fistula which had never healed for 14 years, had found complete relief and fistula healed by drinking the Fong Wan Herbs, I decided to try them.

Owing to my terrible condition and my extremely poor health, it took about six months before I was entirely well. I am now in splendid health and my old trouble have been completely vanquished.

I formerly lived at 1805 Howard street, San Francisco, but have recently removed to Oakland. My phone number is Market 6550.

STANFORD UNIVERSITY, April 3.—Coming from behind and aided by the world record breaking discus throw of Clarence "Bud" Houser, the University of Southern California track team defeated the Stanford University this afternoon by the close score of 67 1-2 to 63 1-2.

The meet was one of the closest and most thrilling ever staged here, but the feat of Houser in setting a new world record for the discus was the only record smashing performance. A stiff wind on the straightaway prevented the sprinters from establishing other than "good time."

DAMAGE SUIT IS POSTPONED

Postponement of the $619,000 damage suit of the Balfour Guthrie company against the Great Western Power company being desired by attorneys for both sides. Superior Court Justice J. B. McKenzie yesterday set the date for the hearing to begin on April 13. The action is brought to recover damages to grain destroyed in a fire which razed the Port Costa warehouse of the California Wharf and Warehouse company in 1924, which the plaintiffs claim was caused by faulty transformers of the power company. The case was set for hearing on next Tuesday.

CRUISESHANKS TAKES TITLE

Bobby Cruishanks now holds the North and South open title. Cruishanks now is at the top of the world. He is a Scot who served for four years with the Highlanders and then was confined to a German prison camp for six months. His escape from the camp into Holland reads like a book. It was this nerve an grit that stood with him during the chaos of the World War that helped him to win the championship at Pinchurst yesterday. He lost the national title in 1923 by a stroke to Bobby Jones. He took the open North and South championship by a card of 293, representing 71-74-74. Macdonald Smith, former holder of the title and Arthur Yates tied for second place with a stroke better than the Scot.

TO PLANT TROUT

Over one million young brown trout will be turned loose in the Russian river, according to word received at Healdsburg yesterday. This will make fishing one of the chief sports along the river and will stock the stream that is now sadly depleted.

GIANTS LEAVE CAMP

The New York Giants left their training camp at Sarasota yesterday confident in the bolstering up of the weak spots. The Giant outer garden is a different field and it is now the topic of much discussion. The Louisville club sold the Giants Tyson for the center position and according to that club Tyson is one of the best fielders that it is possible to obtain. The Giants have Greenfield, Scott Neff, Barnes, McQuillan and Ring this year as mound-men and the club is confident of taking the pennant.

OREGON TRACK POOR

Everything is anything but rosy at the University of Oregon now, for the Wolfrogers are up the proverbial Salt Creek for a good track and field team. A squad of 75 turned out but there are not enough men left from last year's team to make a real good aggregation. The half mile, two mile, high and broad jumps, pole vaults are without varsity men to start training.

U. C. TEAM TO WASHINGTON

With the cheers of thousands of collegiates ringing in their ears the U. C. rowing crew left Berkeley on Friday night with both crews. So far the junior crew has not been selected and speculation is rife on the campus as to whom Coach Ebright will select. The Bruins held their final workout on Friday morning before entertaining for the Washington race at Seattle.

MISSOURI IS WALLOPED BY BRUINS TEAM

(By Universal Service)

BERKELEY, April 3.—University of California track team defeated the University of Missouri 93 to 38, in an Intercollegiate Field day at Berkeley this afternoon.

Competition was close in all events, but the Bruin athletes were just a little better than Missouri in most cases.

Captain Phil Barber of California and Captain Ross Richerson of the Missourians, were high point men of the event. Barber took first place in the hundred and 220 yard dashes and Richerson won the shotput and discus.

The most spectacular fight of the day came in the pole vault. Hill of California, and Lancaster of Missouri, both cleared 12 feet 4 inches. Lancaster won the event with a beautiful leap of 12 feet 7 inches.

A brisk wind and heavy track slowed down the time in all track events.

Talbot ran two beautiful races in the 440 yard dash, he came out on a box from Sixth place and won on the home stretch and then overcame a six yard lead in the lap of to relay to give California the race.

NEW LAND SUIT

MARTINEZ, April 3.—As soon as the Macomber land suit was settled satisfactory to the East Bay Municipal Utilities District, the District filed suit against the Moraga company to condemn 608 acres of land adjoining the Macomber lands, on the south, all a part of the proposed Lafayette reservoir site.

Special Demonstration Of Murphys Famous Brushing Lacquer

On Saturday, 3rd day of April at Dougall's Hardware Co., Macdonald Avenue, there will be a Special Demonstration of Murphy's Brushing Lacquer. This is one of the most recent and wonderful products that has been presented to the public in recent years. This Lacquer has been used very successfully in Auto Industries for a few years, but this product had to be used with a spray. The Murphy Varnish Co., famous for "Day-cote" have perfected a Brushing Lacquer, which can be used by any amateur with perfect success. Beautiful finishes can be obtained on Furniture and Floors, and everything where interior paint and enamel has been used. The job when finished is dry and can be used in half an hour and is practically indestructible. It will be an hour well spent if you call at Dougall's Hardware Co. and see for yourself "the last word in Brushing Lacquer."
